Islamic Council of Queensland Condemns Bondi Shooting

ICQ stands with Victims and calls for unity. The Islamic Council of Queensland expresses its deepest sorrow and outrage at the horrific mass shooting that occurred last night at Bondi Beach. We unequivocally:

1. Condemn this senseless act of violence and the tragic loss of innocent lives.
2. Condemn the availability of firearms, which enables such atrocities.
3. Extend our heartfelt sympathy and solidarity to the victims, their families, the Jewish community and everyone impacted during this time of grief.
4. Assert that this criminal act does not represent any faith or community. Our community stands united in rejecting hatred and condemning these murders in the strongest possible terms.
5. Warn against political opportunism—this tragedy must not be exploited for divisive agendas.
6. Call upon all Australians to stand together for peace, harmony, and mutual respect, reaffirming that violence and extremism have no place in our nation.
7. Commend bystander Mr Ahmad El Ahmad for saving lives by disarming one of the shooters, at great risk to his personal safety.
8. Commend the NSW police service for their quick response. We urge everyone to support law enforcement in their investigations and emergency services in their efforts. We stretch our hand to anyone who wants to work with us on healing and unity in the face of this tragedy.
